HEAVY TRACK AT SARATOGA

Hannibal Shows Himself a Superior Mud Runner in Special.

Westy Hogan Takes the Champlain Handicap with Ease—Weldship a Victim to Bet.

(By J. L. Dempsey.)

Saratoga, N. Y., August 10.—R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Hannibal, a sturdy son of Olambala—Mexcana, and ridden by "Buddy" Ensor, showed the way to the highly rated band of youngsters trying conclusions in the Saratoga Special, worth $10,000 net, including the $1,000 in gold plate added by the association. Terentia, an English filly, sired by Cicero, and carrying the colors of W. R. Coe, landed in second place, with John Sanford's Yuricari following and the Whitney cracks Blue Laddie and Cresson far in the rear and seemingly at a loss in the difficult going. The winner, on the other hand, showed himself to be thoroughly at home on the muddy course and from an outer position moved into the lead with evident ease after traversing the first eighth and steadily increasing his advantage to win with his rider looking back to observe the battle for place honors.

Hannibal's easy success this afternoon, gives him a high place among the top-notchers and, but for his afflictions, which serves a drawback to him in fast track racing, it is more than probable that he would be rated as the best of the two-year-olds. The victory of Hannibal marked the second success that Mr. Wilson has scored in the stake, his previous winner being Campfire, the champion two-year-old of 1916.

Today's splendid racing offering, including three outstanding stake races, was responsible for a record attendance, despite threatening weather and intermittent mild showers during the afternoon. The course was sticky and suited only to the more sturdily built racers, but excellent contests developed in most instances and the sport was highly entertaining.

The meeting of Cudgel and Roamer, which had been anticipated by most of the racing devotees, was necessarily delayed because of bad track conditions. Both were carded in the Champlain Handicap at a mile and an eighth and they were at equal weights, but the respective trainers of the pair of cracks did not deem it advisable to send their charges to the post.

Their absence from the contest was a huge disappointment and it was directly responsible for Westy Hogan being an eleventh hour addition, as was Olive Wood. The Viau crack was on his best running behavior and, although carrying 127 pounds and conceding chunks of weight to the others, raced into a good lead from the start and, being allowed to go along at his own leisure without being overly forced by the others' inability to keep pace with him, showed a cracking good race to win out in fine style from Midway, with Bondage just succeeding in outstaying Franklin for third place. Olive Wood was a distant trailer and thoroughly disposed of the belief that she could run well in mud. The race was worth $2,675 net to the winner.

BET WINS JUMPING FEATURE.

The North American Steeplechase was contested by a quartet of the best fencers in the country and Weldship, which had accounted for the race in the three preceding years, was held good enough to make it four straight and was given vast attention. He made a game but ineffectual attempt, being beaten at the end by Bet, to which he conceded twenty-four pounds. Weldship took the hedges in all his old-time graceful style and gained perceptibly while jumping, but the weight was a telling factor on the flat and Bet took him into camp easily after successfully taking the final hedge.

D. E. Beyers, who had the mount on Doublet, came to grief at the Liverpool in the second time around, when the horse pecked, and tumbled from the saddle, but escaped with a good shaking up. The steeplechase was worth $1,855 net to the winner.

The R. T. Wilson,Jr.'s colors made it a double for the afternoon, when Wyoming accounted for the closing dash, contested by a shifty band of sprinters over the mile route. He was ridden also by Ensor and that rider managed to get him away forwardly and lost considerable ground on the last turn by coming wide, but it enabled him to secure the best footing and he easily disposed of Piedra and Star Class in the final eighth. Valerius was an overwhelming choice in the race, but after racing prominently to the stretch, gave way.

H. Neusteter's Madge F. had conditions to her liking in the fifth race, but it took her best effort and that of jockey F. Smith to win, due to the diminutive Preece's inability to ride John E. Madden's Ambassador III. in anything like competent style. The final eighth found the pair engaged in a strenuous duel, but Madge F. succeeded in getting up to win by a nose.

The veteran Hauberk, an overwhelming favorite, had his work cut out to land the opener and only succeeded right at the end in overhauling Regal Lodge, which held on in game style.

Lieutenant Arthur G. Crocker, medical corps, U. S. A., was a visitor. August Belmont, Jr., also was at the course for the first time this season.

J. Brunner, who rode for W. H. Karrick several years ago and has since been employed by him, departed for Camp Upton to answer the call to the colors.

Steeplechase jockey B. Haynes suffered a broken ankle when thrown from a jumper he was schooling this morning. He was removed to the Saratoga Hospital.

Billy Oliver has purchased Kilts II. and will install him next door to Belario, which he is training for the Brighton Stable.

AMERICANS SUCCEED IN SPANISH RACING

At Sanjander, Spain, July 7, the Grand Prix de Santande of 50,000 francs at a mile and a half, was won by J. D. Cohn's five-year-old bay or brown mare Imaginaire, by Le Saggilaire—Imagination, ridden by Winnie O'Connor. This American jockey is not as conspicuous in racing of late as he was some years back, but can still ride with skill and good judgment. At the same meeting on July 14, the Prix du Roi of 20,000 francs for two-year-olds at three-quarters of a mile, was won by W. K. Vanderbilt's bay or brown filly Tchad, by Negofol—Tola, ridden by Frank O'Neill. Mr. Vanderbilt's horses are doing well in Spanish racing, but the majority of the larger prizes have been carried off by the horses of the Marquis de Villamejor, for whom George Archibald is riding with great success.

RECORD YEARLING SALE OF THE YEAR

Twenty-Six Head, Property of A. B. Hancock, Sell for $64,300, an Average of $2,473.

(By J. L. Dempsey.)

Saratoga, N. Y., August 10.—The record sale of yearlings for this season came out of the disposal of A. B. Hancock's Claiborne and Ellerslie Stud bred youngsters at the Fasig-Tipton mart Friday night. Twenty-six head sold for a total of $64,300, or an average of $2,473. Three others listed in the Hancock consignment, two belonging to Capt. P. M. Walker, and one to H. Flippen, added $16,000 to the sale, making a grand total of $80,300 for twenty-nine head.

The star of the consignment in point of price realized was the black colt, imported in utero, by the famous English sire Black Jester, dam the imported mare by St. Denis—Little Primrose, by Royal Hampton, which went to Commander J. K. L. Ross on his final bid of $14,500. Samuel D. Riddle was a strong contender for the youngster, but retired after offering $14,100. James McClelland, who last year paid $10,000 for The Wanderer, paid a similar price to secure the chestnut brother to Embroidery, by Celt—Network. The next highest priced one sold was the slashing-looking Celt—Ballet Girl colt, half-brother to The Porter, which was consigned by Captain P. M. Walker and was secured by Commander Ross for $9,000.

Last night's sale brought to the ring one of the most fashionable assemblages in years and there appeared more eagerness to indulge in contention for the best.

About the only new-comer to the ranks of owners through the yearling route was W. J. Salmon, a wealthy New York real estate broker, who purchased liberally on the advice of Eugene Wayland, who will handle the colts and supervise their training. Commander J. K. L. Ross, W. H. Karrick and W. Hogan, acting for P. A. Clark, were the principal buyers and engaged in frequent bidding tilts.

Following the disposal of the Hancock youngsters, the chestnut mare Coronis, by Voter—Court Dress, and her yearling colt, by Greenback, by St. Frusquin—Evergreen, were offered. Both were consigned by the estate of Oscar Lewisohn and were sold separately. They mare went to P. A. Ciark on W. Hogan's bid of $4,900 and the colt followed his dam for $550.

The youngsters from the Glen Helen, Adelbert and Herbert Studs were the next to be offered, but small prices were realized for the thirty head making up this band. The grand total for the entire sale amounted to $96,955 for a grand average of $1,589.42.

Numerous breeders present, who had become somewhat disappointed over the outcome of former sales here this year, heartened considerably over the good result attending the Hancock sale. They are still hard at work seeking a rescinding of the rule which prevents the racing of two-year-olds at winter tracks.

LAUREL PARK AUTUMN STAKE PROGRAM

Twenty-Two Stakes Feature Events Planned for Meeting in October—Over $200,000 On Offer.

Laurel, Md., August 10.—Laurel Park will have New York competition through the first three weeks of the coming October meeting of the Laurel State Fair Corporation, but the New York tracks that race against this popular Maryland course will have to offer attractive purses to woo the best horses and bring out the greatest crowds. The Laurel Park program, just announced by General Manager Matt Winn, provides for twenty-two stakes with a total value of about $40,000 and this program is to be supplemented by liberal overnight offerings. There will be, in fact, 167 overnight races decided in the course of the twenty-seven days and these will have an aggregate value of about $160,000. The grand total in money that will be distributed among the horsemen will be between $200,000 and $210,000. Laurel stakes will close August 24.

It is possible that the stake program may be amplified by the running of a great special contest for the two greatest horses—three-year-olds or four-year-olds—that may be developed at Saratoga, Havre de Grace and Belmont Park, between this and October first. Last fall, after the finish of the race for the Lawrence Realization Stakes had demonstrated that Omar Khayyam and Hourless were the most brilliant three-year-olds in the country, Colonel Winn put up a $10,000 purse for a meeting between them at one mile and a quarter at Laurel Park. The race that followed attracted to Laurel the greatest crowd that ever witnessed a horse race in Maryland and stirred the country generally. To the Maryland State Fair's big purse, Edward B. McLean of Washington added a beautiful gold vase and the Hourless-Omar Khayyam race was called the John R. McLean Cup, in memory of the father of the donor of the Cup. If there is another championship special at Laurel Park this coming fall, it also will be called the McLean Cup.

RENEWAL OF MANY FEATURES.

The stakes that will be renewed at Laurel for horses three years old and over are the National Handicap, $2,500 added, one mile and an eighth; Washington Handicap, $2,000 added, one mile and an eighth; Baltimore Handicap, $2,000 added, one mile and a sixteenth; Dixie Handicap, $2,000 added, one mile and a quarter; Anne Arundel Selling Race, $1,500 added, one mile and a sixteenth; Howard Selling Stakes, $1,500 added, mile and a sixteenth, and Canvas Back Selling Stakes, $1,500 added, mile and a sixteenth. The races for three-year-olds exclusively will be the Ellicott City Handicap, $2,000 added, mile and an eighth and the Carrollton Handicap, $1,500 added, mile and a sixteenth.

For horses of all ages these events are offered: Liberty Loan Highweight Handicap, $1,500 added, three-quarters of a mile; Martha Washington Handicap (fillies and mares), $1,500 added, one mile; Blue and Grey Highweight Handicap, $1,500 added, three-quarters of a mile; Prince Georges Handicap, $1,500 added, one mile; Laurel Handicap, $1,500 added, three-quarters of a mile; Columbus Handicap, $1,500 added, three-quarters of a mile, and Georgetown Handicap, $1,500 added, three-quarters of a mile.

Laurel Park's two-year-old features will be the Maryland Handicap, $2,000 added, three-quarters of a mile; Potomac Handicap, $2,000 added, one mile; Annapolis Stakes, $2,000 added, three-quarters of a mile; Blue Point Selling Stakes, $1,500 added, five and a half furlongs. There will be two steeplechase stakes, the Royal Blue Handicap, $1,500 added, about two miles, and the Chevy Chase Handicap, $1,500 added, about two miles and a half.

Last winter and spring Laurel Park was used, at the suggestion of Colonel Winn, as a training place for the engineer corps of the United States army. But the soldiers left early in July and Colonel Winn and his helpers are fast getting the picturesque plant ready for the entertainment of more and better thoroughbreds than ever assembled there in the past. The condition of the track has improved considerably and many new stalls have been constructed.

BILLY KELLY SOLD TO J. K. L. ROSS

W. F. Polson Disposes of His Crack Two-Year-Old for the Goodly Sum of $27,500.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 10.—There was a flurry of excitement when it became generally known just before the yearling sale began in the Fasig-Tipton arena last night, Commander J. K. L. Ross had purchased Billy Kelly from W. F. Polson for $27,500. The price was stated by Mr. Polson. The transfer was consummated late last night.

Mr. Polson departed tonight for his home in Buffalo. "I offered to sell Billy Kelly for $20,000 while in Kentucky and before his victories here he could have been had for the same sum and no one thought well enough to take him. The colt has netted me a profit of over $45,000 and has certainly been a splendid investment. He is a good colt and will win himself out for his new owner this year, if he retains his present good form."

The other horses in the Polson string will be shipped to Kentucky to be raced at the close of the meeting here.

Billy Kelly will probably only fill his engagement in the Grab Bag Handicap, to which he is eligible and then be transferred to Maryland to engage in the fall racing on tracks in that state.

CONNAUGHT PARK DAMAGED BY STORM

Ottawa, Can., August 10.—The severe storm of last Wednesday caused considerable damage to the Connaught Park Jockey Club track. The pari-mutuel building was wrecked, the roof was hurled out onto the track and the side walls were crushed in as though they were egg shells. Sections of the roof were torn off the stables in many places and blown to the adjacent golf club grounds.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

There will be three days of racing at Marlboro, Md., on August 22, 23 and 24 under the auspices of the Marlboro Fair Association.

Three-quarters in 1:14⅖ over a heavy track at Saratoga yesterday morning gives a good idea of the excellent condition the good western colt, Slippery Elm, is in at present.

FALL RACING IN KENTUCKY

Season of Forty Days Allotted by State Racing Commission.

Sport to Begin at Lexington September 14 and Close at Latonia November 2.

(By T. B. Cromwell.)

Lexington, Ky., August 10.—The Kentucky State Racing Commission met here today and allotted fall racing dates to the four licensed tracks as follows:

Kentucky Association, Lexington:
Saturday, September 14 to Saturday, September 21, seven days.

Douglas Park Jockey Club, Douglas Park, Louisville:
Monday, September 23 to Saturday, September 28, six days.

New Louisville Jockey Club, Churchill Downs, Louisville:
Monday, September 30 to Saturday, October 5, six days.

Latonia Jockey Club, Latonia:
Thursday, October 10 to Saturday, November 2, twenty-one days.

This makes a total of forty days, which is curtailment of nine days, as compared with last fall.

The four associations entered into a signed agreement that there shall be no purse less than $800 at Lexington, no purse less than $1,000 at Douglas Park and Churchill Downs and no purse less than $1,200 at Latonia during the fall meetings. The increase was voluntary and was approved by the commission.

Chairman J. N. Camden and Charles F. Grainger were absent, the former having been detained in West Virginia, where his mother died during the week and the latter being at Saratoga, recovering from an illness of four weeks. Both sent letters saying that they regarded it imperative that there should be racing in Kentucky, but favoring curtailment of dates. Vice-chairman Hart Talbot, General W. B. Haldeman and Judge Allie W. Young were present, Mr. Talbot presiding.

The meeting, however, was not held until afternoon, because of Judge Young's failure to arrive earlier. General Haldeman expressed himself in opposition to any racing in Kentucky this fall, while Messrs. Young and Talbot declared themselves as believing that it would be equivalent to murder of a great breeding industry and discouraging to the war aims of the allies to suspend racing and when the question was put upon Judge Young's motion that there be racing, Mr. Haldeman voted in the negative and the other two in the affirmative, and in so doing they unquestionably voiced the sentiment of the most people. The opposition to racing is centered at Louisville and is being fostered by a reform element there which is taking advantage of the fact that the country is at war to cloak their destructive aims.

The communication from Commissioner of Agriculture Matt S. Cohen concurred in by Governor Stanley, requesting that there be no racing in conflict with the State Fair was not before the commission since it had been addressed to Chairman Camden at his home, but the members had heard of the request and the wishes of the governor and the commissioner of agriculture, expressive of the wishes of the state board of agriculture were complied with.

President Ed A. Tipton of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders' Association, whose meeting begins September 20, had asked the local running association for a two-weeks interim, if possible, between the closing of their meeting and the opening of his meeting, but the State Fair angle precluded this and Tipton expressed himself as entirely satisfied with the action taken.

NEW RULE OFFERED BY W. B. HALDEMAN.

General Haldeman, who had voted in the negative on the granting of dates and also on the motions fixing the dates, offered a new rule to the effect that in future "the license committee shall be composed of the entire commission." This will lie over thirty days. The following, in the form of a direct statement to the public, was presented by Judge Allie W. Young, and was adopted:

"After mature and careful consideration, it is the deliberate and patriotic conviction of the members of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, one member dissenting, that racing should not be discontinued in this state or country during the war, for the following reasons:

"To discontinue racing would discourage the breeding industry of Kentucky and in other important states of the Union. In many instances it would mean the closing down altogether of valuable breeding farms, which cannot be spared to this country and Europe, who will look to these shores in the days of rehabilitation to come.

"It is officially estimated that little Belgium alone has lost more than 250,000 horses. In the early days of the war, when Russia was assuming an aggressive part, they drove off from the government studs in Germany over 20,000 thoroughbred broodmares, which was felt to be an irreparable loss to that country. In the chaos that has followed in Russia, her own supply of horses has been practically lost. Millions of horses have been destroyed or used up on the battle fronts. The reserves of animals in England, France and Italy are gone.

"When peace is established, it will devolve upon this country to actively help our allies to resume normal productive occupations in which the horse is an indispensable factor.

"The commission wishes to emphatically say that it does not regard racing as an idle pastime. That, if the United States government had asked, or even suggested, that it would be expedient or wise to discontinue racing during the war, they would unhesitatingly do so. On the contrary, however, the fact is being developed in official circles that, properly conducted, racing is now a military necessity, as thoroughbred production depends upon it.

"The government of France has taken over the race horses and has contests today of speed and stamina under the supervision of the war department.

"The Parliament of England has recognized the status of the thoroughbred as a military necessity. Since the war began it has established a governmental breeding stud under the control of an expert. It also continues racing during war times, as it realizes it is the only recognized guide in securing the right breeding material to repienish cavalry remounts. Racing is the only test to demonstrate the indispensable qualities of soundness, stamina, speed and mettle to withstand the shock and terrible stress of battle.

"All of the racing associations of Kentucky have passed resolutions stating that no one of draft age will be employed by them. The New York Tribune, quoting from gas logic and under the caption 'The Horse Is Still a Factor,' recently said: 'Despite the vast numbers of motor vehicles used on the European battle fronts, the horse is still important as an engine of war. The armies in the field have already used 4,500,000 horses and our new army will require 1,500,000 more. Wounded horses are easily handled. They seem to know that the surgeons are trying to help them and they submit to having their hurts dressed with wonderful fortitude.'"

The racing associations were represented at the meeting by Messrs. Harvey Myers, Latonia; John Hachmeister, Latonia and Douglas Park; Matt J. Winn and H. C. Applegate, Churchill Downs; G. D. Wilson, R. L. Baker and A. B. Gallaher, Lexington. Secretary Sam C. Nuckols also was present.

THOROUGHBRED NURSERY OF WORLD

England Determined to Maintain Her Pride of Place Among Nations.

New York, August 10.—That England is determined to maintain her pride of place as the thoroughbred nursery of the world, is shown by the manner in which she is maintaining her breeding interests despite the limited opportunity afforded to secure a return on the investment because of war conditions.

Reports indicate that the best horses in the stud in Great Britain have had satisfactory seasons. This is particularly true of Major August Belmont's great horse Tracery, whose book was full at 250 guineas. In commenting on the fact that the superb son of Rock Sand—Topiary was mated with forty mares, thirty-seven of them other than his own, Major Belmont said a few days ago:

"There is a lesson for the breeders of the United States in the manner in which English owners of thoroughbreds are maintaining this most useful strain of horses. Though their country has been at war for four years, and the strain has been constant, they have never lost sight of the importance of keeping up the quality of their bloodstock. The need of remounts brought about the establishment of a national stud, and I am gratified to find one of the best mares from it among those sent to Tracery this season. Another great mare mated with him was Tagale, dam of the Derby winner Tagalie. Still another with local interest attached to her is the Berrill matron Queenlet, the dam of W. R. Coe's good filly Terentia, which is showing such good form at Saratoga. Sir Mark Sykes, whose Sledmere Stud is renowned the world over, has sent Agacella and Startling as well as Queenlet. Mr. Coe was indeed fortunate to secure Terentia and other Sledmere youngsters last year, as it was the first time they were ever sold privately.

"It must be remembered," resumed Major Belmont, "that Tracery is only one of many high priced sires standing in England at the present time. His fee was formerly 400 guineas, but it was reduced to the present figure in order to encourage breeders to keep up the work of blood horse production during the war. The subscriptions to Tracery this year are an eloquent testimonial to the love the best type of British sportsman has for a good horse.

"There was a disposition," said Major Belmont in concluding, "to curtail racing to a point where the life of the breeding industry was threatened the first year of the war in England. The necessity for racing tests in connection with breeding, and the absolute need of fostering the industry because of what it meant to the nation, brought about a revulsion of feeling and this season has been materially lengthened. We in the United States are in the same predicament as the British when the future of our horse product is considered. Racing and horse breeding must be continued. It would be extremely unwise to abandon any policy which makes for advancement in either field."

A full list of the mares bred to Tracery, together with their breeding and ownership, is appended. It will be noticed that the matrons are the acme of English blood lines, while their owners are the bone and sinew of the British turf. List of mares bred to Tracery in England, season of 1918:

SIMONS THINKS WELL OF SUN BRIAR

Saratoga, N. Y., August 10.—Albert Simons, who trains the good three-year-old Johren for Harry Payne Whitney, is one of those who thinks that Sun Briar is likely to make a clean sweep of the three-year-old races from this time on. He considers it mighty fortunate for the others whose names have been considered in connection with championship honors that Sun Briar was a bit tardy in coming to his real form, and he sees no reason for doubting that Sun Briar will race successfully as far as horses are asked to go.

OWNERS KEEN FOR MILE SPEED TEST

Several of Them Are Confident Their Charges Can Lower Record Made by Sun Briar.

(By Ed Cole.)

Saratoga, N. Y., August 10.—There is renewed talk of a special race being run here between the best milers to settle the much-disputed question regarding the fastest horse in this country over a perfect course. Sun Briar's hanging up a mile record has caused other owners to seek the honor of lowering the record of 1:36⅕, which, to quote Shakespeare, is a hanging plum "devoutly to be wished."

Commander J. K. L. Ross and his trainer H. Guy Bedwell have an idea Cudgel can at least do as well as Sun Briar, and Andrew Miller and his trainer, Jack Goldsborough, are practically convinced Roamer could hang up a better record under the same atmospheric conditions.

Walter Jennings thinks he has a better horse than Sun Briar in his stable in A. K. Macomber's War Cloud, and Frank Weir, who trains Jack Hare Jr., enjoys the same opinion regarding Col. W. E. Applegate's colt.

All these men are discussing the subject of a special race, and there is a chance that the management of the association will get into the conference in an effort to bring such a race about. The proposition is to make it a weight-for-age event, which would be a true test for championship honors.

In the course of arguments on the subject some of those concerned have intimated it should be a handicap. To this the majority of those owning the probable contestants object, and rightly, too, for then the race would be practically in the hands of Handicapper Vosburgh instead of resorting to the old and well-established rule of scale weights.

It is a sure thing Mr. Vosburgh would rather back away from a handicapping proposition than encourage it, as he is in favor of more weight-for-age races, in fact he has been an advocate of weight-for-age races for years. That such an event would be a great attraction for the tail-end of the present Saratoga meeting is unquestioned. Never was there a better opportunity to decide a championship between four or five topnotch horses than the present.

POLYMELIAN TO BE CONSIDERED.

Naturally such a race would be open to all, and possibly the horse that beat Sun Briar at three-quarters, Polymelian, would be among the entries. It would be a race of many complications, and with five or six horses running at weight-for-age there is no predicting what would happen.

The question of pace would enter decidedly into the argument as would intelligent jockeyship. In any event, it would prove a great contest, the like of which few in the present generation of racegoers have had an opportunity to witness.

The special race between Hourless and Omar Khayyam at Laurel last autumn proved a monster attraction, and one that did the turf more good generally than anything that has happened in a decade. It proved the popularity of a race between champions and so interested was the entire community in the result that editorials were written on the subject in hundreds of newspapers both here and abroad.

Saratoga has a record-smashing track and never was there a better time to install a set of time records that would possibly hang up for generations. The horses are here, the track is here and all that is needed would be appropriate weather for one of the greatest races in th history of the American turf.

Speaking of fast horses, there was a rather humorous argument between two negro clockers a few mornings ago. One of them was working hard on a prospective "live one" trying to get him to wager on a certain horse that was to run that day.

"This horse has worked five-eighths in fifty-nine seconds," said he, "and there is no horse going to beat him today."

His associate, who had previously been speaking of another colt in the same race to the same "live one," chimed into the argument, refuted the statement of the first speaker, stating positively that the colt alluded to was not capable of working five-eighths that fast.

"Man," said he, "you certainly have a time-slaughtering watch. That colt you are talking about could not work that fast. There is but one way for him to travel five-eighths in fifty-nine and that would be to take him up in an airship and then drop him."

HANNIBAL A WONDERFUL CRIPPLE

Runs Remarkable Race in "The Special," Despite His Many Ailments.

(By Ed Cole.)

Saratoga, N. Y., August 10.—"Hannibal would have never started in the Saratoga Special had it not been for the muddy track," said his trainer Thomas Healey. "He was the sorest horse I ever trained since his last race two days ago. His near knee is in bad condition and it has had two days doctoring. I doubt if he will be able to get out of the stall tomorrow. He is surely a game horse to run the race he did in the condition he is in."

In speaking of scratching Roamer, Mr. Miller said it would have been futile to start him in the heavy going. The same excuse was given for Cudgel, his trainer not caring to tear his horse apart in the deep and holding going which has prevailed since the severe rains.

Supt. Myer has built a fast track for dry weather, but the consensus of opinion of horsemen is that it will be extremely heavy after a storm. Today it was estimated to be at least seven seconds slow to a mile.

Frank Moore, one of the clubhouse commissioners, and Sam Doggett, brother of Richard Doggett, were taken suddenly ill while eating their lunch today and were unable to get to the track. Both received the attention of physicians. A slight attack of ptomaine poisoning is thought to be the cause.

Al Rohrback, who purchased nine imported horses from W. S. Heather, paid his first visit to the track today. "The horses are all well, but not ready to race yet," said he. "I think they will be about fit for the fall season."

Went to post at 4:03. At post 1 minute. Start good and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. HANNIBAL, favored by the going, began fast and, taking an immediate lead, held it throughout and was eased up at the end. TERENTIA was in close quarters next to the rail in the early running and in the worst going, but ran a good race and finished gamely. YURUCARI was in the better going on the outside on the turn and in the middle of the track through the stretch and responded gamely to hard riding. SWEEP ON'S chance was eliminated by crowding at the start. LORD BRIGHTON tired badly at the end after a good early display of speed. BLUE LADDIE ran poorly in the going.

WESTY HOGAN took the lead at once and, making the pace fast for the going, responded to momentary urging in the final eighth and was going away at the end. MIDWAY raced in the heavy going for the first three-quarters, then came wide when entering the stretch and made a fast and game finish. BONDAGE, off well, dropped back at the half-mile ground, then saved ground on the last turn and outgamed the tiring FRANKLIN. The latter tired on the home turn and swerved out in the stretch. TICKET and OLIVE WOOD were always outpaced.

MADGE F., while racing on the outside of the leaders in the early running, was forced wide when entering the stretch, but stood a long drive gamely and won in the last stride. AMBASSADOR III. made a good pace and came wide on the turn, but ran a good race. KEEN JANE was in close quarters next to the rail in the early running and was pinched back on the last turn, then tired badly in the stretch drive. The others were always outpaced.

Went to post at 5:29. At post 2 minutes. Start bad and slow. Won easily; second and third driving. WYOMING, while racing close up, was forced extremely wide by STAR CLASS, but closed up on the outside in the better going and was going away at the end. PIEDRA saved ground on the last turn and finished resolutely under hard riding. STAR CLASS set a fast pace and ran well, but lost much ground on the home turn. W. P. DABNY closed a big gap. VALERIUS was in close quarters next to the rail in the stretch drive. OENONE and HEREDITY were virtually left.
